TOPO Telegraph Place Obtained 25X1 25X1	COUNTRY	Approved For Re Gersany (Sovie	TION (C) (C) (C) (E) (C) (C) (C) (C) (C) (C) (C) (C) (C) (C	A-RPB82A9945 REPC	7R011600390006-9 PRT NO	25X1 25X1
PAGE OBTAINED	TOPIC
DATE PREPARED 3. April 1072 PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REWORKS 1	EVALUATION_		PLACE OBTAIN	ED	25X1
DOT OBTAINED DATE PREPARED. 3 ADMIL 1952 REFERENCES 25X1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS A ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS TO SHAPE REMARKS A ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS TO SHAPE REMARKS A Work was recursed on a large scale at Telefor SIFTISIE. Understing was being done on the textway east of the runway. The extension of this textway to the southern end of the runway was being fraction. Cloring and luveling was used in the cast into the woods. Teappeared for textway was being done on a strip extending from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxivay beward the cast into the woods. Teappeared that bandstands were planned taxivations to the strip. Such hardstands were appearently to be also constructed along the worse taxivay. Begans of broiders stones, and and stones were close very dear of at the field. Cornet was stored in the construction who by the side of the pur track. Construction states in a struction readerall was transported to the intrivial construction rises by a nerreceptuage field railings and a Discoll becombine. He has from the segment of the struction of the strip of	DATE OF CONT	FENT	25X1
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REWARKS PAGES 1	DATE OBTAINE	D	DATE	PREPARED	3 April 19	52
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & WPE) REMARKS Page				T 25X1
work was recused on a large scale at Telzow affileld. Conserving was being done on the taxiway east of the runway. The extension of this taxiway to the southern end of the runway was being proced. Clearing and leveling was under way into words northwost of the south end of the runway for a blanced taxiway west of the runway. Crading work for a third taxiway was being done on a strip extending from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway to be the contract that the words. It appeared that hardstands were planned along this strip. Such herdstands were appeared that hardstands were planned along this strip. Such herdstands were appeared that the cast constructed along the vester taxiway. Heaps of broken stones, sand and stones none chosewed at the field. Common was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction material was transported to the individual construction isses by a narrow-gauge field railway and a Diesel locanotive. Now low wooden buildings were under construction in material was transported to the individual construction with the received of the intellation. pecked to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night. * Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at the field is two reported that construction work was discontinued at the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet biobar airfield in Brand and Corneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a bird taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the south-construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Document No.			(NO. & TYPE)
work was resumed on a large scale at .elzow sirileld. Concreting was being done on the taxiway eart of the runway. The extension of this taxiway to the southern end of the runway was being graced. Clearing and leveling was under way into words northwost of the south end of the runway for a blanned taxiway west of the runway. Crading work for a third taxiway was being done on a strip extending from the southeastern corner of the castern taxiway toward the cast into the woods. It appeared that hardstands were planned along this strip. Such hardstands were appeared that hardstands were planned along the strip. Such hardstands were appeared that the disconstructed along the wester taxiway. Houges of broken stones, send and stones were closewed at the field. Coment was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction material was transported to the individual construction states by a narrow-range field railway and a Diesol loconotive. Now low wooden buildings wore under construction in the weeds east of the invalual, not far from the spagy, track. Civilians guarded the field. Cuardhouses were being exceted at all sides of the installation. pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night.  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at the field is to be improved in the seaso way as the jet bother sirfeld in Brand and Cornechon, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a bird taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the coattern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Document No.		6/	A
work was resumed on a large scale at .elzow sirileld. Concreting was being done on the taxiway eart of the runway. The extension of this taxiway to the southern end of the runway was being graced. Clearing and leveling was under way into words northwost of the south end of the runway for a blanned taxiway west of the runway. Crading work for a third taxiway was being done on a strip extending from the southeastern corner of the castern taxiway toward the cast into the woods. It appeared that hardstands were planned along this strip. Such hardstands were appeared that hardstands were planned along the strip. Such hardstands were appeared that the disconstructed along the wester taxiway. Houges of broken stones, send and stones were closewed at the field. Coment was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction material was transported to the individual construction states by a narrow-range field railway and a Diesol loconotive. Now low wooden buildings wore under construction in the weeds east of the invalual, not far from the spagy, track. Civilians guarded the field. Cuardhouses were being exceted at all sides of the installation. pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night.  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at the field is to be improved in the seaso way as the jet bother sirfeld in Brand and Cornechon, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a bird taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the coattern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Document No.	raling and	100	The Annual Company of the Company of	ty Problemussellie'r chillenii rhalleb Tita stalien - a ar menilliariber	bonic hatch consister securities to allian real two directing man alliace to such as	 В М. В. Наймов и распион достанавательный достанаваний по выполняет и в применений по выполняет и в применений по в применений п
work was resumed on a large scale at .elzow sirileld. Concreting was being done on the taxiway eart of the runway. The extension of this taxiway to the southern end of the runway was being graced. Clearing and leveling was under way into words northwost of the south end of the runway for a blanned taxiway west of the runway. Crading work for a third taxiway was being done on a strip extending from the southeastern corner of the castern taxiway toward the cast into the woods. It appeared that hardstands were planned along this strip. Such hardstands were appeared that hardstands were planned along the strip. Such hardstands were appeared that the disconstructed along the wester taxiway. Houges of broken stones, send and stones were closewed at the field. Coment was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction material was transported to the individual construction states by a narrow-range field railway and a Diesol loconotive. Now low wooden buildings wore under construction in the weeds east of the invalual, not far from the spagy, track. Civilians guarded the field. Cuardhouses were being exceted at all sides of the installation. pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night.  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at the field is to be improved in the seaso way as the jet bother sirfeld in Brand and Cornechon, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a bird taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the coattern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Document No.	PSC CONTROL OF THE AMERICAN CONTROL CO	OFTU OGARY	Moderner i Militati regen dersällt i 1924 ihr i 1920 blen Stant and 1421 ihr zere in derspiele (bas i 1924	PORTER CHAIL HOUSE HEAVING CHOSEN MICHIGANISM	BRUNEL PROMETERS AND ABOVE OF TRACTORS TO ACCOMMENSATIONS - 18 - 2 - 2 - 2 - 2	Article (Actualisme) / Land all materials and the effect control of the effect of the work was resumed on a large scale at elzow affiliald. Concreting was being done on the taxiway each of the runway. The extension of this string to the southern end of the runway was being proced. Clearing and leveling was under way in the words northwest of the south end of the runway for a planned taxiway was being from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the cost into the woods. It appeared that hardstands were planned along this strip. Such hardstands were appearantly to be also constructed along the vester taxiway. Heage of broken stones, sand and stones were observed along the field. Coment was stered in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction material was transported to the individual construction sizes by a narrow-range field railway and a Diesel locomotive. Now low wooden buildings were under construction in the words east of the runway, not far from the spag, track. Civilians ruarded the field. Cuardhouses were being erected at all sides of the installation. pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night. * Convent. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at claws afficied it was reported that construction work was discontinued in the spring of 1952. This first report on resumed construction indicates that the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet bother airfield in Brand and Corneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the contern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of concernation as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was proviously transmitted. Classification Classificat Class Change In 6 less. Cla	ratheranti militari. en 10 esperatore de reconstante constitución de	1/21.	MERIORIA ALPRIA METALBERA (MERIORIA) ANTICA MERIORIA MERIORIA (MERIORIA MERIORIA) MERIORIA MERIORIA (MERIORIA MERIORIA M	шишкал түрүн жата ашыны түркт уруланда ашына	paga arang paga ana arang at ang ang paga paga paga paga paga paga p	suurings augmininka kapauliga koolingan koolinga kapa arringaning kenandukooling kau a
done on the taxiway east of the runway. The extension of this taxiway to the seuthern end of the runway was being graded. Clearing and leveling was under way in the woods northwost of the south end of the runway for a planned taxiway west of the runway. Cradin: work for a third taxiway was being done on a strip extending from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the cast into the woods. It appeared that hardstands were runned along the wester taxiway. Beaps of broken stones, send and stones wore charved at the field. Coment was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction material was transported to the individual construction sites by a narrow-range field railway and a Diesel locomotive. New for wooden buildings were under construction in the weeds east of the runway, not far from the spag, track. Civilians runaded the field. Cuardhouses were being erected at all sides of the installation. Soviet soldiers were ex-25x1 pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night. *  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at Telzow alifited it was reported that construction work was discontinued at Telzow alifited it was reported that construction work was discontinued in Brand and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Document No.				PERMINE WAS GOVERN APPRAISA INTONE - NA BARRANDA
done on the taxiway east of the runway. The extension of this taxiway to the seuthern end of the runway was being graded. Clearing and leveling was under way in the woods northwost of the south end of the runway for a planned taxiway west of the runway. Cradin: work for a third taxiway was being done on a strip extending from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the cast into the woods. It appeared that hardstands were runned along the wester taxiway. Beaps of broken stones, send and stones wore charved at the field. Coment was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction material was transported to the individual construction sites by a narrow-range field railway and a Diesel locomotive. New for wooden buildings were under construction in the weeds east of the runway, not far from the spag, track. Civilians runaded the field. Cuardhouses were being erected at all sides of the installation. Soviet soldiers were ex-25x1 pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night. *  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at Telzow alifited it was reported that construction work was discontinued at Telzow alifited it was reported that construction work was discontinued in Brand and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Document No.
done on the taxiway east of the runway. The extension of this taxiway to the seuthern end of the runway was being graded. Clearing and leveling was under way in the woods northwost of the south end of the runway for a planned taxiway west of the runway. Cradin: work for a third taxiway was being done on a strip extending from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the cast into the woods. It appeared that hardstands were runned along the wester taxiway. Beaps of broken stones, send and stones wore charved at the field. Coment was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction material was transported to the individual construction sites by a narrow-range field railway and a Diesel locomotive. New for wooden buildings were under construction in the weeds east of the runway, not far from the spag, track. Civilians runaded the field. Cuardhouses were being erected at all sides of the installation. Soviet soldiers were ex-25x1 pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night. *  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at Telzow alifited it was reported that construction work was discontinued at Telzow alifited it was reported that construction work was discontinued in Brand and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Document No.	(1 _{25×1}			-1 7000		7
southern end of the runway was being praced. Clearing and leveling was under way in the woods northwest of the south end of the runway was being done on a strip extending from the southeastern corner of the eartern taxiway toward the cast into the woods. It appeared that hardstands were planned along this strip. Such hardstands were appearently to be also constructed along the wester taxiway. Heaps of broken stones, sand and stones were elsewed at the field. Conent was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction ratarial was transported to the individual construction sites by a narrow-rauge field railway and a Diesel locomotive. How low wooden buildings were under construction in the weeds east of the runway, not far from the spart track. Civilians runared the field. Consentous were being erected at all sides of the installation. Seviet soldiers were ex-25x1 that work was also being done at night. *  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at Melzew airfield it was remerted that construction work was discontinued in Brand and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or alroady under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Document No.	25/1		on a large scale	at Telzow air	rfield. Concret:	ing was being way in the woods northwest of the south end of the runway for a channed taxiway was not of the runway. Crading work for a third taxiway was being done on a strip extending from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the cast into the woods. It appeared that hardstands were planned along this strip. Such hardstands were appearently to be also constructed along the wester taxiway. Heaps of broken stones, sand and stones were observed at the field. Corner was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction material was transported to the individual construction sites by a narrow-rauge field railway and a Diesel locomotive. New low wooden buildings were under construction in the weeds east of the runway, not far from the spggt track. Civilians runrded the field. Cuardhouses were being erected at all sides of the installation. Soviet soldiers were ex-25x1 pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night. *  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at Nolawa airfield it was reported that construction work was discontinued at Nolawa airfield it was reported that construction work was discontinued at Nolawa airfield it was reported that construction work was discontinued at Nolawa airfield is to be improved in the same way as the jet bucker airfield in Brand and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or alroady under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. Asketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Document No. Document No.*		done on the taxiv	ay east of the ru	inway. The en	ctension of this	taxiway to the a strip extending from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the cast into the woods. It appeared that hardstands were planned along the strip. Such hardstands were appeared by the sale constructed along the wester taxiway. Reaps of broken stones, sand and stones were cheered at the field. Cornent was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Cornertwas stored la vas transported to the individual construction sites by a narrow-rauge field railway and a Diesel locomotive. New low wooden buildings were under construction in the weeds east of the runway, not far from the span track. Civilians guarded the field. Cuardhouses were being errected at all sides of the installation. Soviet soldiers were ex-25x1 pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night. *  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at wellows airfield it was reported that construction would probably be resumed in the spring of 1952. This first report on resumed construction indicates that the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet bomber airfield in Brand and Corneuchon, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the south-eastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted.  CLASSIFICATION Decument No		way in the woods	northwest of the	south end of	the runway for a	a planned taxi-
the east into the woods. It appeared that hardstands were planned along the wester strip. Such hardstands were apparently to be also constructed along the wester taxiway. Heaps of broken stones, send and stones were elsewed at the field. Coment was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction saterial was transported to the individual construction sites by a narrow-pauge field railway and a Diesel locomotive. How how wooden buildings were under construction in the weeds east of the runway, not far from the spagy track. Civilians guarded the field. Cuardhouses were being erected at all sides of the installation. Soviet soldiers were ex-25x1 taxiway. Means of broken stones, sand and stones were observed at the field. Coment was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction material was transported to the individual construction sites by a narrow-range field railway and a Diesel locomotive. New low wooden buildings were under construction in the weeds east of the runway, not far from the spury track. Civilians ruarded the field. Cuardhouses were being erected at all sides of the installation. Soviet soldiers were ex-25x1 pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night. *  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at Nolzow airfield it was reported that construction would probably be resumed in the spring of 1952. This first report on resumed construction indicates that the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet bomber airfield in Brand and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Declassified Declassified CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Declassified CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Declassified CLASSIFICATION Declassified CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Declassified CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION The contraction of the status of contraction would probably the contraction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Declassified CLASSIFICATION The contraction of the contraction would be the contraction of the co		the east into the	woods. It appear	ared that hard	datands, were pla	anned along this Coment was stored in the construction shed by the side of the spur track. Construction material was transported to the individual construction sites by a narrow-rauge field railway and a Diesel locomotive. New low wooden buildings were under construction in the weeds east of the runway, not far from the spur track. Civilians runwied the field. Cuardhouses were being erected at all sides of the installation. Soviet soldiers were ex-25x1 pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night. *  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at Nelsow airfield it was reported that construction work probably be resumed in the spring of 1952. This first report on resumed construction indicates that the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet bomber airfield in Brand and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of Call of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Document No.
narrow-rauge field railway and a Diesel locomotive. New low wooden buildings were under construction in the weeds east of the runway, not far from the spagn track. Civilians runarded the field. Cuardhouses were being erected at all sides of the installation. Soviet soldiers were ex-25X1 pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night. * Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at Telzow airfield it was reported that construction would probably be resumed in the spring of 1952. This first report on resumed construction indicates that the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet bomber airfield in Brand and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Document No.		Coment was stored	in the construct	tion shed by	the side of the s	spur track. Con-
track. Civilians guarded the field. Cuardhouses were being erected at all sides of the installation. Soviet soldiers were ex-25X1 pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night. *  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at Melzow airfield it was reported that construction would probably be resumed in the spring of 1952. This first report on resumed construction indicates that the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet bomber airfield in Brand and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted.  CLASSIFICATION*  CLASSIFICATION*  CLASSIFICATION*  CLASSIFICATION*  Document No		narrow-rauge fiel	d railway and a D	iesel locomo	tive. New low we	ooden buildings sides of the installation. pected to arrive soon. Judging by flood lights around the field that work was also being done at night. *  Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at Nelzow airfield it was reported that construction would probably be resumed in the spring of 1952. This first report on resumed construction indicates that the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet bomber airfield in Brand and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted.  CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Document No		were under censta	uction in the wea	ds east of the	ne runway, not fa	ar from the span
 Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at Welzow airfield it was reported that construction would probably be resumed in the spring of 1952. This first report on resumed construction indicates that the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet bomber airfield in Brand and Corneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or alroady under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the south-eastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. Document No		sides of the inst	allation.		Soviet sold:	iers were ex-25X1
* Comment. In the fall of 1951, when construction work was discontinued at Welzow airfield it was reported that construction would probably be resumed in the spring of 1952. This first report on resumed construction indicates that the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet bomber airfield in Brend and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the south-eastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. CLASSIFICATION Document No					around the fiel	Ld
at Nelzow airfield it was reported that construction would probably be resumed in the spring of 1952. This first report on resumed construction indicates that the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet bender airfield in Brand and Normeuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. 1						• .
in the spring of 1952. This first report on resumed construction indicates that the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet bomber airfield in Brand and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Document No	K 1	* Comment. J	n the fall of 195	1, when cons	truction work was	s discontinued that the field is to be improved in the same way as the jet bomber airfield in Brand and Terneuchen, where a taxiway on either side of the runway is planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Document No planned or already under construction. This report contains the first information on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the southeastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. 25X1 CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Document No		that the field is	to be improved i	in the same wa	ay as the jet bor	mber airfield mation on a third taxiway with hardstands, which is to extend from the south- eastern corner of the eastern taxiway toward the east. A sketch on the status of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. 25X1 CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Document No of construction as of fall of 1951 when work was discontinued was previously transmitted. 25X1 CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Document No		mation on a third	taxiway with har	dstands, which	ch is to extend :	from the south-
CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION
CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION CONTROL/US CUFICIALS CHLY Document No		transmitted.			25 × 1
Document No					23/1
Document No
Document No
Document No				_
Document No			le	NTIAL
Document No	(1	CLASSIFIC	TION STEARS	CONTROL/US O	FICIALS CHLY
No Change in Class. Declassified Class. Changed To: TS S (C)	SINTSIN	processor and the second secon	CO.A			andre apaliperaturi ini paramenta de la sela
Declassified Class. Changed To: TS S (C)	•			Docu	ment NoG
Class. Changed To: TS S (C)						2511